Web of Life  - Tori Tasch
January 19 - March 15, 2020

Tasch’s passion for repurposing and layering is evident in her series of small, distinctive artist books ranging from insects to urban landscapes. Merged into one space, they raise awareness about environmental issues and urban impact while exploring nature conservation and biodiversity.

Opening Reception: 12noon - 3:00 p.m.

Winter Picnic Event: 12noon - 2:00 p.m.  Artist Talk: 2:00 p.m.

Winter Picnic: Insects are our Friends - Community Engagement Event
This is an opportunity to connect with the artist while creating a butterfly book to add to the installation or take home as a reminder to plant natives that provide nectar.

Enjoy special insect-shaped cookies, sundaes, and hot chocolate with the artist.
